DONATING RECORDINGS FOR LOCAL HISTORY

Archivists at the Buncombe County Special Collections or the WNC LGBTQIA+ Oral History Archive Project may collect oral histories that align with collection policies and meet the following conditions:

- Audio release forms filled out by all speakers;
- Brief biographical summary of interviewee(s);
- Completed donation checklist confirming forms, files, date, place, and summary of the interview to ensure all these conditions are met.

Potential donors should contact the collection stewards of the archives in which they want their recordings to be placed for public access and historic preservation:
